

35 Seat Chapel

This chapel for a university residence was constructed inside three stories of an 80 year old reinforced concrete warehouse building. Totaling 18,000 square feet, the space was to be used as both a religious activity center and a residence for college students attending local universities.